Assistant/Associate Professor of Practice or Assistant/Associate Teaching Professor

Summary of Duties and Responsibilities: The Department of Community and Regional Planning (CRP) in the College of Design at Iowa State University (ISU) is accepting applications for Assistant/Associate Teaching Professor or Assistant/Associate Professor of Practice to teach in the Masters in Real Estate Development (MRED) Program and in the Community and Regional Planning programs.

The MRED program is an online degree and jointly offered by the CRP Department, College of Design and the Finance Department, Ivy College of Business. It prepares students for career success in today's real estate industry by providing essential academic training, networking opportunities and collaboration with leading academics and practitioners to solve real world problems. Areas of study include real estate market analysis, finance, investments, leadership and negotiation, fundamentals of the built environment, construction science and urban planning.

This is a part-time 9-month appointment term faculty position with the CRP Department (the percentage of appointment and length of contract are negotiable). The position will involve teaching online and in-person courses, including CRP 526: Real Estate Development as well as electives in the MRED, and in the CRP programs.
